

DRAMA 10 ACTIVITIES YOU CAN DO AT HOME

1. Tongue Twisters

"Betty Botter bought some butter"
"She sells seashells by the seashore"

HOW FAST CAN YOU SAY THESE TRICKY TONGUE TWISTERS?

"If a dog chews shoes, whose shoes does he choose?"

"Unique, New York"

2. Write and Perform a Monologue

Write your own monologue- It could be funny or it could be serious. You could do it as a character or write your own thoughts and feelings down in a speech. Try some different styles and topics out. Focus on your vocal skills as you perform your monologues to your audience .

BONUS!

Put your design skills to the test and...
MAKE A SOCK PUPPET!

3. Lip Sync Battle

Put together a playlist of your favourite songs and mime along! You can film your lip syncs and challenge your friends. Don't forget to use overexaggerated facial expressions and movements!

4. Accent Challenge

Choose one of the tongue twisters from task 1 and perform it in different accents. Get your friends and family to guess what accent you are doing. French? Posh? Northern? Australian?

5. Charades

Put your mime skills to the test in a game of charades! You will need to use clear gestures and movements to recreate key moments of your favourite books, films or plays for your family to guess!

6. FaceTime Duologues

Get together with a friend or family member who you have not seen for a while. Write a short script and rehearse it. Grab some costumes and you could even make a backdrop for your scene. FaceTime each other to perform your duologue. Make sure you both get into character by using clear facial expressions and gestures.

7. Research Playwrights

Find out about the lives and work of some of the greatest playwrights.

William Shakespeare, Arthur Miller, Lucy Prebble
Caryl Churchill, Sophocles...plus many more!

8. Drama Games

Gather the family round for some classic Drama games! Whether it is SPLAT! or Wink Murder, Mafia or Park Bench... there's loads of fun to be had with your favourite Drama Games!

9. Family Performances

Direct your family in your own performance. It could be your own interpretation of a play you know or you could pen your own. Find some costumes around the house and create a make-shift performance space in your house.
