

What William Davis looks for in Apprentices:

- Enthusiasm and an appetite to learn
- A passion for their chosen industry including researching William Davis and job knowledge of their chosen trade
- Any voluntary work experience within their chosen trade or job role. A candidate is more highly regarded if they have organised this independently
- Be able to fit in with the team and Company, willing to work to the Company values
- Have the right attitude and aptitude, have the desire to learn and fulfil their potential
- Digital literacy – social media platforms
- Be themselves
- Have good references from school, work experience placements and part time jobs
- Have a good work ethic and willingness to learn
- Be ambitious and demonstrate drive and determination
- Show pride in themselves