

Progress Grid Year 8

	Foundation	Developing	Secure	Excellence	Exceptional
	Expected outcome: Level 1-2+	Expected outcome: Level 3-3+	Expected outcome: Level 4-5+	Expected outcome: Level 6-7+	Expected outcome: Level 8-9
Key expectations of knowledge and Understanding from the Year 8 Programme of Study	-Students show their progress from Year 7 by continuing to show that they know what it takes to be a good citizen (practicing rights and responsibilities) -They start to understand key issues that affect them such as the importance of not abusing drugs and alcohol, preparing for adult life and their rights and responsibilities -They grasp key citizenship topics such as politics, conflict and human rights and know some examples of each	-Students continue to show their understanding of the subject by practicing their rights and responsibilities -They investigate the importance of not abusing drugs and alcohol. They understand the facts and begin to develop their own opinions -They can describe some key citizenship issues and they know examples of each as well as the importance of studying such topics	-Students investigate and explore the risks that are associated with drug and alcohol abuse -They continue to practice their rights and responsibilities - They analyse the importance of studying key Citizenship topics such as politics, human rights and conflict resolution and can describe certain aspects in detail and can give examples of each	-Students continue to analyse their role as a citizen and the role of other citizens locally, nationally and globally -They understand the key concepts studied in Year 8 and can explain them in detail with clear examples -They know detailed examples of politics, human rights and conflict resolution and can relate this to the global community -They know democratic and British values	-Students continue to develop a deep knowledge of their role and the role of other citizens in society -They link this globally and understand and analyse different global issues in a lot of detail where their use real-life examples to show their understanding -They can explain all of the key concepts in accurate and clear detail with examples -They understand the importance of what they are studying and start to prepare for adult life
Key expectations of Skills and Processes developed throughout Year 8	-Students begin to form an opinion on key PD issues such as drug and alcohol abuse and show that they can think sensibly and make good decisions that ensures that are good citizens (happy and successful) -They show that they can begin to understand both sides of the argument and can listen to others	-Students have developed their own opinion about topics studied and begin to describe it with some facts -Students begin to research and enquire about key Citizenship and PD issues -They have begun to process what is meant by 'Being British' and Democratic values	-Students have developed an opinion about topics studied and begin to back it up with their own research and enquiry -They take informed and responsible action inspired from what they have studied -They begin to think critically about conflict and politics and begin to analyse the world around them whilst keeping British values	-Students take informed and responsible action inspired by what they have studied (drug and alcohol education/preparing for adult life) -They study the key Citizenship topics with critical analysis and form their own opinions -They begin to think of solutions for some of the global issues studied -They show that they understand both sides of the argument and can give detailed conclusions and opinions	-Students have clearly grasped the concepts studied and have shown an ability to analyse, evaluate and conclude -They offer solutions to global issues and show that they have a pragmatic outlook -They have linked all the key concepts studied and show that they are passionate about ensuring everyone has their rights and responsibilities

